Career Planning Program (CPP) is available to all medical students for assistance with career planning and CaRMS applications. CPP offers individual career advice, as well as shadowing and interviewing opportunities.

Mentorship Programs are designed for all UBC Medical students where they are connected with students from other years and a physician mentor, who helps guide the group.

Also, several talks are held at the Medical Student Alumni Centre by different interest groups, which provide a great chance to connect with residents and program directors for clerkship and residency.

Woodward Library (UBC Vancouver Campus)

UBC Biomedical Branch Library (Diamond Healthcare Centre)

Emotional/Mental Wellness

The Assistant and Associate Deans from the Office of Student Affairs (see contact information above) are available to talk through most concerns that may come up during school, clerkship or electives.
